Australian Federation of Disability Organisations (AFDO)

The Australian Federation of Disability Organisations (AFDO) is a Disabled People's Organisation (DPO), the Peak body for Disability Representative Organisations in Australia, and a national voice representing people with disability.

Our vision is to achieve a community where All people with disability can participate in all aspects of social, economic, political, and cultural life.

AFDO National Conference

Each year, 200+ disability sector CEOs and leaders from around the country come together in a hybrid format to analyse, discuss, and debate, issues of importance to people with disability at the AFDO National Disability Advocacy Conference.

The Conference features a diverse line-up of speakers, including prominent disability advocates, politicians, journalists and social commentators, philanthropists, political strategists, academics and thought leaders.

The Conference also serves as a key networking opportunity for the disability advocacy sector with multiple opportunities for connection throughout the day and continuing into the evening at the AFDO post-conference social event.

To achieve our mission and vision, AFDO works closely with, and on behalf of, its 40+ member organisations to develop policy and undertake advocacy and representation to Government on matters that impact the lives of people with disability.

AFDO's strength and credibility lies in the wealth of specialist expertise derived from its diverse membership, along with over twenty-years of quality policy development and a strong track record of tireless campaigning and advocacy.

Given the critical point in the Federal government cycle with an election to be held by May 2025, the AFDO Disability Advocacy Conference will take place in the Nation's Capital, Canberra, providing increased opportunity for engagement with MPs and policy makers.

As a hybrid event, the AFDO conference also attracts a vast virtual audience from around Australia.

We welcome the opportunity to partner with you on this important event!

Congratulations AFDO on running a conference that was easy to access, inexpensive, had interesting insights and centred people with disability.
